XIDAS

Xavier Institute of Development Action and Studies (XIDAS) is a charitable, non-profit, minority educational institution and it is also a social and developmental organization. It works in close collaboration with some of the reputed Jesuit Management Schools within India and abroad. Xavier Institute of Management Jabalpur (XIMJ), an educational unit of XIDAS, offers Post Graduate Programmes in the area of Rural Development and Management Studies. The Institute through its various Departments undertakes various field projects and research studies. It believes in building a nation in accordance with the dreams and vision of the Constitution of India, as spelt out clearly in its Preamble-Justice, Equality, Liberty and Fraternity. We are contributing to the building up of a new world order, where everyone has a place and therefore, it has opted deliberately to side with the poor and the marginalized, who live in the villages and cities of India.

Training Department

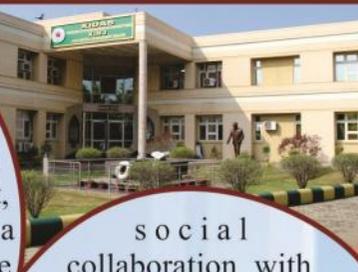

The Centre of Training and Capacity Building delivers trainings which are aimed at enhancing competencies amongst working professionals, managers and executives working at different levels. Trainings offered cover different areas like finance, marketing, human resource management rural development, urban governance, right to information, public distribution system, and watershed management etc. The main objectives are to provide working professionals with concepts and techniques relevant for formulating and implementing strategies in organizations and communities.

Campus Infrastructure

XIDAS campus spreads over 12 acres of land and offers verdant and tranquil surroundings, which are very conducive for potential trainees to learn and improve. We place emphasis on sustainable development, protection of environment and nurture of our ecological surroundings.

We have state of art facilities for hosting MDP programmes apart from lecture rooms such as:

- Air Conditioned Conference Rooms of different capacities with well equipped multimedia and audiovisual aids.
